THE CONSTITUTION

INVENTS FOR TODAY, SEPT. 21, 1885.

GENERAL COUNCIL MEETING.

THROUGH THE CITY

The general council met tonight. They say it is the quietest storm.

A dozen new stores are being erected on Duane street.

The churches were not very well attended last night.

The quail crop is good, and will be on the market after October 1st.

Overcoats were abundant on the streets yesterday afternoon's last night.

The all-singing topic in Atlanta now is the coming election on prohibition.

Sam Jones is having his residence in Carverville papered by an Atlanta man.

Atlanta sent a good delegation out to hear Sam Small at Carverville yesterday afternoon.

Prayer Howard, a negro man living at 225 Pryor street, dropped dead last night.

The state fair, which is about a month ahead of last year, will be patronized from this section of the state.

Mr. Sam W. Small will assist in the service at Ebenezer chapel tonight. The meetings will continue during the present week.

A small number of brave church-goers ventured out yesterday, but the churches were almost empty, and a duller, drier Sunday has seldom been seen in Atlanta.

In the list of the finance committee of the prohibition movement, which was published last night, the name of Mr. A. D. Adair should have appeared instead of that of Mr. G. B. Adair.

The Rev. Mr. Dillard, pastor of Grace church, has been organizing a series of meetings for the past week. Last night after the sermon by Rev. Mr. Dillard, Mr. Sam Small, made an impressive talk. When the invective was extended for those who desired to come forward for prayer, quite a number responded. The meeting will continue during the present week.

WOMAN'S WORK.

What is Being Done by The Georgia Women's Exchange.

The new rooms of the Georgia Women's Exchange, at the corner of Peachtree and Walnut streets, are now completely fitted up, and this institution is well under way with its benevolent projects.

The object of the exchange is to help worthy women to help themselves by disposing of articles which they make. A ticket which costs one dollar entitles the holder to place on sale in the exchange any articles she may make for her own use or for the use of others.

The price on her articles and a small per cent is charged for selling them. There is now a good stock of fancy goods on sale at the exchange and it is being constantly replenished and enlarged by contributions from friends and from other parts of the state.

In addition to the exchange, the women's exchange is a place where the ladies invite their friends and the public generally. Delicious lunches are served at the most reasonable rates. It is an admirable
